

House Resolution No. 1294

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives are continually impressed with the longevity experienced by those citizens who attain the status of centenarian and pause to recognize this tremendous milestone in the life of an esteemed resident of St. Clair County, Missouri; and

Whereas, Edna May Fenwick of Appleton City will commemorate the resplendent occasion of her One Hundredth Birthday on April 2, 2003; and

Whereas, born on April 2, 1903, Edna Fenwick grew up in the company of four sisters and one brother, attended Lewellen School and Central Missouri State University, was married for fifty-six years to James Murray Fenwick, and raised two children, Robert Fenwick and Eugene Fenwick; and

Whereas, Edna Fenwick has also had the honor and privilege of spoiling three grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild, all of whom have brought great pride and happiness into her life; and

Whereas, Edna Fenwick is a former teacher who has enjoyed recognition as a valuable member of Alpha Delta Kappa and the Retired Teachers Association; and

Whereas, an avid reader who maintains a keen interest in world affairs, Edna Fenwick has been an eyewitness to numerous national and international events, many of which are familiar to others only through the pages of history; and

Whereas, Edna Fenwick is grateful for the countless blessings she has received throughout the course of her long and eventful life:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously in extending special birthday greetings, hearty congratulations, and best wishes to Edna Fenwick as she continues to enjoy her golden years and the privilege of attaining membership in the Missouri Century Club; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Missouri centenarian, Edna Fenwick, as a measure of our esteem for her.
